“At Hough Street School, we strive to create an environment that ensures every family feels welcomed, included, and that they belong. We take great pride in making sure every child feels Hough is an extension of their own home. Our talented team works in partnership with each student to reinforce a common belief that ‘Together We Can!’ Students are taught the importance of remaining resilient during challenges, as we believe struggles set the stage for academic and social emotional success. Together we can make each child successful!”

Zach Ernst, Principal

School History
Hough Street School is one of eight elementary schools in the Barrington 220 School District, serving grades K-5. The original Hough Street School, known as South Side School, opened its doors in 1855, making it the oldest school in the Barrington 220 School District. The old frame schoolhouse stood in the exact spot of the current Hough Street School playground. In 1905 a new building was constructed on Hough Street and it became the original home of Barrington High School, until BHS moved to its current location on Main Street in 1949. Located in the heart of downtown Barrington, the current Hough building was built in 1967 and it is a prominent feature in Barrington’s local history.
