7:10 pm Call to Order

Guest Speaker: Referendum Information - Penny Kazmier, B220 Board of Education Member

Reports of Officers

- Secretary – Claudette Lew
 - Passed around sign-up sheet
 - Asked for questions regarding the November 2018 and February 2019 minutes. Leah Lazarri made a motion to approve the November 2018 and February 2019 minutes. Jen Shimp seconded the motion. All in favor. The board voted unanimously to approve both the November 2018 and February 2019 minutes.
- Treasurer – Paul Mahon
 - Last month, we approved the teacher wish list. Brigid will pay the invoices and we will reimburse her. The financial report reflects status through February 28, 2019. There are still four or five wishes left to fund.
 - The San Filippo event will help our bottom line as we were not expecting to be the recipient of their fundraising. It's a pleasant surprise.
- President – Lori Madison
 - There will be a forum on Wednesday 3/13 at the Barrington Library featuring the Board of Education candidates.
 - There is a Rotary International fundraiser at the San Filippo estate on April 13. Ten percent of proceeds will come to BHS Fine Arts Boosters.
 - Slate is almost set for next year's FAB Board. Still need one more person for citrus, one for publicity and one more for scholarship. All the discipline reps have been approved by the corresponding teachers to continue in their roles for next year.

Report of Director of Fine, Visual and Performing Arts – Brigid Tileston

- BHS Fine Arts Department Update
 - The Jazz Band concert was terrific. An awesome night and great to see Station and Prairie on stage with our HS kids.
 - BHS TV created a powerful video that everyone should watch. B-kind.
 - The Phil Mark concert was amazing. Great to see the kids work together in memory of someone who had such a positive impact.
 - In Dance, the multicultural show is a great way to expose our kids to different cultures. Guest choreographers will be brought in during the week.
 - Orchestra is doing a great job with "Music in the Schools" videos, which are being promoted and shared everywhere.
 - Once a month we show student art work at the Board of Education meetings. It's a good way to speak to the power of arts in our community.

Reports of Discipline Representatives

- Orchestra - Dale Juffernbruch
 - The Chamber Orchestra and Chamber Choir performed a successful benefit concert at Barrington United Methodist Church Saturday, March 9.
 - Throughout the month of March, the Orchestra is celebrating "Music in our Schools" Month with a BHS Bach project: performing in public areas Fridays before school, and in classrooms by request. So far, Orchestra students have performed in 10 classrooms. This will culminate on March 21, Bach's 334th birthday, (and the last day before spring break).
 - All Orchestra students are working on their solos and ensembles for our March 16 festival and are also preparing for our April 9 concerto concert.
- Visual Arts - Leah Lazzari
 - Arrivals/Departures is April 25-28. The seniors will be presented with awards on Friday evening at

6pm. Art remains all weekend at the Ice House Mall. Joe Zimka is working on our poster and we are working on fun ideas (e.g. t-shirts) for publicity. We will need help setting up on Wednesday and taking down on Monday after the show is over. Please contact Leah if you'd like to help.

Reports of Standing Committees

- Student Board - Sarah Parrish
 - The student group meets tomorrow morning.
 - April 7 is the Family Expo and the group is working on planning the event's activities.
- Scholarship – Jen Shimp & Angela Nahza
 - The Nancie Kozel-Tobison Scholarship is now accepting applications between March 1st and March 24th. The $1,000 scholarship is awarded annually to a senior who has made significant contributions to the BHS choir program and who has provided outstanding leadership during his or her BHS choir career. Students are not required to pursue a post-high school education in the field of music. Last year, an additional $500 scholarship was added. We will offer it again this year. Once the application window closes, Angela and I will meet with Mr. Pemberton and Nancie to determine the winners.
 - The Interlochen Scholarship is now accepting applications between March 1st and April 15th. Interlochen offers an extensive list of summer camps for young students who have a passion for the arts and are interested in studying music, theatre, visual arts, creative writing, motion picture arts or dance. Award of the scholarship is dependent on the student being accepted into one of the Interlochen Summer Arts Camps in Michigan. The Lageshulte Interlochen Scholarship is awarded annually and will pay a maximum of $1000 of a student's tuition to an Interlochen Summer Camp. It is available to any current Freshman or Sophomore in Barrington 220 who will spend at least two additional years in the district upon completion of an Interlochen Summer Camp. Once the application window closes, Angela and I will discuss applicants with the Executive Board and Brigid to determine the winner.
- Membership – Jeri Broderick & Kelli Davenport
 - There has been $22,600 in direct donations this year, and $300 in corporate matching.
- Alumni – Judy Bruce & Diane Mahon
 - Diane and Paul Mahon will be taking over Alumni next year.
 - Some of our BHS alumni will be competing in the ICAA (international championship of collegiate a capella) this weekend in downtown Chicago and many others are also involved in collegiate a capella groups at their schools.
