

Winter Weekend Classes!

Northwestern University's

Center for Talent Development

Age 3 – Grade 8

The Weekend Enrichment Program (WEP) at Center for Talent Development (CTD) offers challenging and enriching courses for bright students age 3 through grade 8. Our research-driven courses, outstanding instruction and the camaraderie of learning with like-minded peers make our weekend programs the place to be!

- Hands-on courses are offered in English & language arts, science, math, computer science & technology, humanities, and design & engineering.
- Dive deeper into a single topic of study and further develop areas of interest and strength.
- Parent education opportunities available in both online and in-person formats throughout the year.
